Our 'Pulp Era' is a fuzzy, fictional period from the Great War up to the early 30's. It's an approach I call 'Hollywood Historical'. If you saw the 'Indiana Jones' films then you should get the idea. Historical accuracy is not a priority. We are shooting for mood and flavour here; far-flung, two-gun adventure in seedy seaports, sinister spies and occult villains steeped in arcane lore, the smoke of desperate battle and grinning in the face of death.
